Introduction

Helambu is a region of highland villages in Nepal, close to Kathmandu. It is the home of the Hyolmo. The word Helambu derives from the word Hyolmo. The Helambu region begins at the Lauribina La pass and descends to the Melamchi valley. Helambu is famous for its sweet apples and artistic Buddhist monasteries and it is a Buddhist pilgrimage site.

Several trekking routes visit Helambu, one of them being known as Helambu Trek.

This is a good trek for people who don't have much time in Nepal and is noted for its scenic grandeur and pleasant climate. It is a 9-day long trek which starts in Kathmandu itself, but can be completed in as little as 5–6 days. The normal trailhead starts off at Sundarijal and goes past Chisapani, Hyolmo, Kutumsang, Magin Goth, Tharepati, Malemchigaun, Nakote and Hyolmo, Tarkeghyang. After which you have the option of two roads one is the footpath via Sermathang or the bus route via Kiul Takpa Kharka. Both the roads ultimately meet at Melemchi where you can take a bus back to Kathmandu. Another variation is the reverse of this trek. The maximum height reached during the trek is about 3650m.

This trek is rated as an easier trek because the elevations are lower, ranging between 800m. and 3600m., which indicates less climbing and warmer temperatures. One advantage to this trek is there are fewer trekkers here than on the Annapurna trek and some parts of the Everest treks, but there is still a wide range of cultures and spectacular scenery.

Trek Timing

While trekking is possible in this area the whole year round, the best times to visit are from the beginning of March to end May and from the beginning of September to end November.

We strongly recommend the use of a neck wallet or money belt while travelling, for the safe keeping of your passport, air tickets, travellers' cheques, cash and other valuable items. Leave your valuable jewellery at home - you won't need it while travelling. The hotels we use in Kathmandu have a safety deposit box which is the most secure way of storing your valuables. A lock is recommended for securing your luggage.

Upon Arrival in Kathmandu

Upon your arrival at the Kathmandu Tribhuvan international airport, you look for a signboard of Grand Himalaya Treks & Expedition and you will notice our representative holding Grand Himalaya's board. He will welcome you with a garland and a bottle of mineral water, then assists you transfer to your respective hotel in Kathmandu in Grand Himalaya's Van/Coach.

On our every trip, we have all Airport pickup and drop shuttles included in the trip cost to protect you from any kind of hassles and tussles which is quite common to experience when you for the first time visit an alien country.

With Grand Himalaya trip cost, you will be accommodated in a 4 star category hotel in Kathmandu on B&B (Bed & Breakfast) basis. Your early booking the trip along with deposit of 25% of the total trip cost per person is highly required to make necessary accommodations in Kathmandu and Lodges in related trekking region, domestic flight reservation for your trip.

Important note:

- Power cuts can and are a regular occurrence in Nepal, especially throughout Kathmandu. Although the hotel has generators there may be times when these won't work.

Accommodation on trek

Lodge accommodation will be provided during the trek up to base camp and on the way back to Lukla after the expedition, which will be in the best available lodges in the area, team members will be accommodated on a twin share. Meals during the trek at lodges may be selected from the menu, according to individual choice. Most of the lodges in this area will have hot showers available at the charge of $5-10 per shower which is not included in your expedition cost.

Meals on the Trek

Meals during the teahouse trek should select from the menu according to individual choice, unless the group is large. For large groups you should place a bulk order as the teahouse will find it easier to prepare a bulk order than individual meals. The easiest thing to do is to pick 2 or 3 choices and get a show of hands, the kitchen will thank you!

During a Tea House trek you will usually have breakfast and dinner in the lodge; lunch will be eaten at one of the trail side restaurants. Every Lodge serves the traditional Nepali meal "Dal Bhat" which is comprised of rice, vegetables and lentil soup. There will be a variety of different food items too, such as rice, vegetables, noodles, potatoes and soup. Almost every lodge in the Everest region have Nepali versions of western food such as pizza, pasta, pies and French fries. Soft drinks, snacks and beer are available in all lodges and trail side restaurants. And of course Nepali milk tea is served everywhere.

Time Difference

GMT is less than Nepal by 5 hours 45 minutes

Mobile phones, Internet and Wi-Fi connectivity

Trekking is a wonderful break from the wireless world, but in the towns and cities out here, it is now your choice whether you disconnect or stay connected.

Check your mobile phone roaming services prior to leaving to know whether you might have service.

Nepal - Kathmandu

Most overseas roaming-enabled mobile phones work in Kathmandu and Pokhara. You should be aware that occasionally an SMS (text) message sent to you will arrive 20 times. You can send messages out, normally without problem. Blackberry services and GPRS etc are now available. Local SIM cards (Ncell and NTC) can be bought from corner shops and start at around $8 (cheap!), and refills by scratch cards, very easy and convenient. You need an UNLOCKED phone to use a local SIM. Internet cafes litter Thamel and other tourist haunts, so checking your Yahoo, Gmail etc. is easy and cheap. For laptop users there are more and more free Wi-Fi cafés.

Helambu Region, Nepal

Ncell and NTC these days have good network coverage around the Helambu region!

Itinerary disclaimer

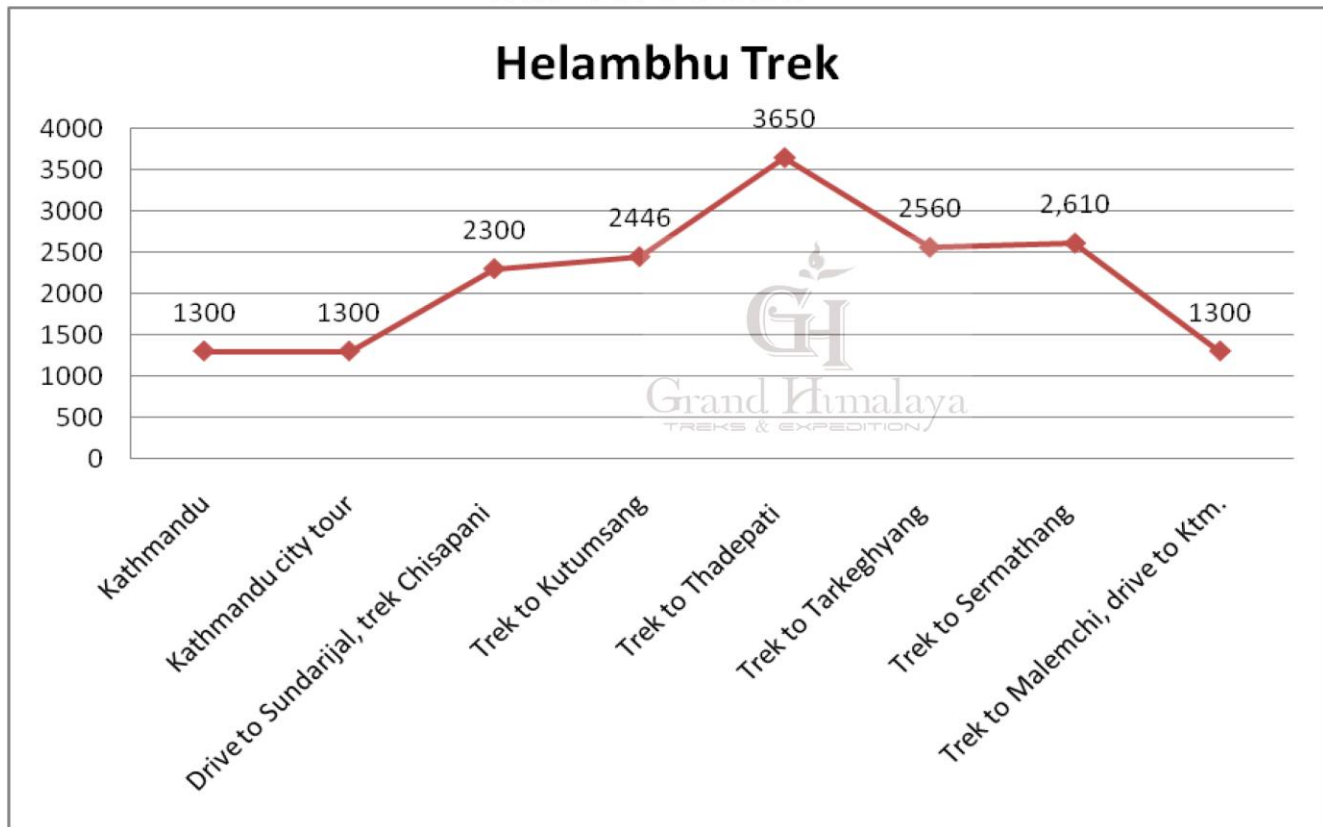

The itinerary is the strongest part of our trip. Stick to it and you will have little altitude related illness problems, go one day harder and you can be in big trouble. In our decade long experience as a guide and leader, we have tested these programs out several times. Sometimes they will seem slow but it's about enjoying the trip not pushing hard and having a headache all day. You need a very good reason to go faster. Going slower is Ok, just watch your overall progress. Shifting up one day instead of having a rest day can mean headaches and you then have to have a rest day later anyway!

Every effort will be made to keep to the above itinerary, but as this is Adventure Travel in a remote mountain region, we cannot guarantee it. Weather conditions and the health of climbers can all contribute to changes. The trek Leader/Guide and cook will try to ensure that the trip runs according to plan, but an easy going nature will be an asset! Issues that result in changes to trip finish dates, hotel or air tickets requirements etc need to be communicated to grand Himalaya HQ ASAP.

Furthermore, our Trip Notes is a general guide to the trek and region we are going to visit.

Any mention of specific destinations or flora and fauna is by no means a guarantee that they will be visited or come across.

What to take

This is a very active trip, meaning you will be on the move most of the time, so pack as lightly as possible. Please note that between every 2 members there will be 1 porter/mule and your trekking gear will be carried by the porter/mule in a water-proof duffel bag that we will provide you. The maximum the porters/mule is allowed to carry in Nepal is 30 Kg/22lbs, which means the average weight of each member's duffel bag shouldn't exceed 15Kgs. Besides, the airlines company that flies to the trekking areas of Nepal has a similar policy of allowing 15Kgs of luggage and 7Kgs of hand baggage for free, for every passenger.

Some of your luggage can be left in Kathmandu (the hotel may charge a storage fee), but you will need to take all your trekking gears with you.

Be a safe Trekker

1. Keep your eyes on your team mate while trekking and try to cohere with the group at all times. Trekking tracks in the Himalayas are often connected with caravans and nomads trail, trails to the villages nearby the trekking route, domestic and wild animals trail, etc. These off the trekking track can often mislead you and consequently, people could wander off the track towards the hazardous door.
2. Try not to ascent rapidly especially first few days of the trekking, no matter how physically tough you are. I presume trekking in the Himalayas is entirely different than trekking in the Alps and Andes. Keep your eyes all around you when trekking because there is an utmost possibility of seeing wild lives and some other interesting sites, rather than speeding up towards the next camp and end up holding your heads rest of the day.
3. Drink plenty of plain fluids at least 4 liters a day. Keeping yourself hydrated after day's exhaustion is a must which can prevent you from having AMS (Acute Mountain Sickness).
Avoid drinking alcohol once you hit high altitude, which is above the altitude of 3500 meters. Make yourself habit of drinking water, tea, soup, juice and so on, instead of alcohol. Drinking alcohol at high altitude has been scientifically proved to be making your body more susceptible to AMS.
4. Make sure you do not overload your daypack as this could cause pain to your shoulders/back. The heaviest item in your daypack should be your water, so your daypack should get lighter as the day goes on. If your daypack feels uncomfortable at any point, stop and readjust it.
5. Ensure that your feet and other extremities are kept warm and dry at all times. There have been cases of people not adequately dressed getting frost bite at high altitude due to the freezing temperatures. Remember, although the temperatures at the top may not seem cold, wild chill can reduce this temperature even further. Always be prepared with something to cover your face, warm gloves and thick walking socks.
6. We advise that you take some plasters/a blister prevention kit with you to keep your feet in good condition. Don't lace your boots too tightly/loosely and if they feel uncomfortable readjust them and apply plasters when necessary.
7. Keep your head torch in your daypack, always. You never know when and where you end up walking in the dark.
8. Walking poles can aid your trek, providing additional support and balance. Walking poles also helps to significantly reduce knee strain, particular during decent.
9. Your guides and sherpas are very much experience about the places you are trekking.
So we always recommend you to follow their instructions and help yourselves by helping them to create a magnificent plus successful trip.

We the entire family members of Grand Himalaya would like to wish you safe and successful trips.

Important to note

- Please read the 'Checklist' section of this trip notes for additional details of what you need to bring for the trek on this trip.
- You will need to bring a comfortable medium sized day pack to carry the things that you will need during the day. This should have a waist strap or (better) a padded waist belt.
- The weather is subject to change in high altitude so layered clothing is recommended throughout the year.
